PEOPLE CALL ME KAHRAMAN MARAŞ

People call me Kahramanmaraş, the hero town. I have hosted a lot of civilizations for about fifteen thousand years. Each of them left a trace on me. Memories are the things what make a town meaningful. Who knows the number of poems written and what happened on my streets...

You can find me in East Mediterranean Region in Turkey at a point where the regions meet. I've picked up a piece of beauty from each and that makes me different. Please keep in your mind: My flavours and precious products are created by the artisans of Maraş. And now I'll share my sweetest secret with you...

ARISE OF THE ICE CREAM AND KARSAMBAC

The secret of Maraş ice cream is hidden in the natural richness of the Ahir Mountain which the city leans against and in the mastership of ice cream making which is kneaded through patience.

Centuries ago in Kahramanmaraş, a cool dessert was born, consisting of layers of snow accumulated in the caves and hollows on the slopes of Ahir Mountain, and molasses produced in the vineyards of the mountain, honey from karakovan and fruit extracts mixes. This dessert was called "Karsambaç" at those days.

The roots of wild orchids

Karsambaç later became richer with the milk of goats raised on Ahir Mountain and finally, the miraculous formula was completed with salep obtained from the roots of wild orchids.

The beginning of Kervan Patisseries

HERITAGE OF GENERATIONS

In the 1960s, Durgut Usta patiently processed the resulting magnificent mixture with his own work and skill. The unique taste and density of Maraş ice cream is hidden in this patience.

The reputation of Durgut Usta, who is considered to be the inventor of crushed ice cream, has long exceeded a mini ice cream shop, and thus the family's pride, Kervan Patisseries, was born.

Kervan's love of ice cream grew even more after he started working in his second generation. In the intervening years, on the one hand, new branches are opening; on the other hand, the production was rising to international standards.

THE SWEETEST GIFT OF NATURE

It was time to make a universal brand and to carry the real Maraş ice cream to the whole world. On the sunniest day of the summer of 1997, Alpedo brand was born with big dreams.

Alpedo is not just an ice cream brand; At the same time, it was the representative of a culture that has been going on for centuries.

Alpedo grew up with a lot of effort!
And, it surrounded the country with his love of ice cream.
Moreover, it has spread to 4 continents from China to the United States.

Today, Alpedo carries Maraş Ice Cream to 146,000 points around the world.
When you think of Maraş ice cream, Alpedo comes to mind.

Being the clear leader of Maraş Ice Cream market in Turkey, Alpedo produces 10% of all ice cream produced in Turkey alone.

Alpedo, which has managed to enter the record books with the world's largest hooked ice cream, offers traditional Maras ice cream, from strawberry to pistachio; produces 30 kinds of pure and natural ice cream, from chocolate to orange.

All of Alpedo's production is carried out in environmentally friendly, modern facilities that produce with high hygiene and food norms in Kahramanmaras. Its pioneering work in the field of 'sustainability' within the framework of the UN sustainable development goals guides the sector.

It produces the ice cream of the future with its investments in renewable energy resources, water and carbon footprint measurements, measures and actions against climate change, and the importance it attaches to women's employment.

For all these reasons, Alpedo is the pinnacle of ice cream in every way.

It is much more than an ice cream.
